1800 Dinner
2030 -2200 Tea break and further discussion

Regarding our discussion, here is Mingdong's tentative plan:

1. Welcome note and brief intro of our institute from our deputy director: 10-15 min
2. Peter's overview of the projects: 20 min
3. Each participant gives 5-10 min introduction on their strength and potential contribution to the project: 60 min
4. Discussion on projects: 1:30 min

090210

One day tour to Qing Yun Mountain
1800 Dinner
2030 Lanterns Show (It is Lantern Festival)

Mingdong plans to have sightseeing activity for the Danes on the day time of 10th. Mingdong will arrange a scenic trip to suburban Fuzhou. Thus, please bring a pair of hiking shoes.

Also, Southern China is quite cold in this season - can be 4°C at night and around 10°C (in Celcius) during the day. In addition, we don't have heating in the buildings. Only northern China (area north of Yangtze river) has heating supply. Thus, you may feel cold in Fuzhou - bring a jacket with you. Of course, you can always dig out more info about Fuzhou on internet. I always use wikipedia: <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fuzhou>

090211

0800 - 1000 Free Shopping-Markets for Chinese Cultures and Paintings
1030 To airport
1410 Arrival in Wuhan. Hotel near the university.
Presumably informal discussions with Dongxu Liu and his coworkers in the afternoon and evening.

090212

Ernst-Martin Füchtbauer will give a talk in Dongxu Liu's department. Niels Christian Nielsen will give a talk at the Wuhan Institute of Physics and Mathematics, State Key Laboratory of Magnetic Resonance. The exact times need to be settled.

090213

Wuhan to Tianjin, 1130 - 1320

In Tianjin, we will meet with GuoGuang Ying, Ph.D. (CV attached). He is professor and deputy chief of the Core Laboratory of Tianjin Medical University Cancer Institute and Hospital. The hospital is one of the biggest cancer hospitals in China and has the first follow-up data base for breast cancer patients in China.

You will introduce yourselves for 10 or 20 minutes. Our Chinese hosts will do the same. We will then discuss the possibility for any kinds of collaboration. Guogang Ying and his coworkers would probably like to discuss the prognostic value of the plasminogen activation system with us.

We will probably have an evening tour of the city.

090214

Tianjin to Beijing by express train (~30 min for 130 km). Arrival in Beijing 1414. Transportation to the Tianlun Dynasty Hotel.

In the afternoon, Peter and Shan will make presentations in Dental Hospital, Beijing Capital Medical University. Others can join or relax or shop.

Shan Gao: "Plasminogen activator and its inhibitors in oral carcinoma"

Peter Andreasen: "Proteases and cancer"
